

ON THE ITALIAN BATTLEFRONT

The Nevada Italian colony has interested itself in bringing out one of the most extraordinary series of motion pictures of the war that has been brought to America. The pictures are in seven reels and show the Italian campaign against Austria for the first time. They will be seen tonight at the Liberty theater. Although the Italian campaign has been overshadowed by the larger events in France and Russia, Italy's contribution to the success of the entente allies has been much larger than is generally appreciated and the campaign against Austria, though less advertised, has been on of greater difficulties than were faced anywhere else in Europe.

"On the Italian Battle Front" will show the Italian armies in action in the Tyrolean Alps. The film follows every step of military operations necessary for the occupancy of these immense natural fortifications. The hauling of great guns up the mountain sides, the provisioning of the men, the building of redoubts to make more impregnable those provided by nature, are problems being met by military science, but in this particular phase of the great campaign science has not eliminated the need for heroism and initiative on the part of the individual soldier.

The Italians occupying the summit of Mount Nero, sentry duty at an altitude of 10,000 feet, the lowering of the wounded from a mountain top after an engagement, destroying wire entanglements placed by the Austrians, are among a quantity of scenes calling for attention. Then, too, in this very able collection of pictures there are first rate scenes of the Italian fleet in action in the Adriatic. Concise subtitles are printed in both English and Italian.

PRESIDENT APPROVES OF COLLEGE SPORTS

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23.—Wholesale abandonment of college and school athletic sports during the war is not advisable, President Wilson believes, not because of their value to divert the American people, but because they contribute to national defense.

ITALIAN MISSION SETS FORTH PRESSING WANTS OF COUNTRY

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23.—Italy's war mission including some of the kingdom's foremost political and commercial figures, reached Washington today for discussions with American officials along the general lines of war co-operation already laid down in the conferences with the French and British envoys.

Headed by his royal highness, Ferdinando di Savoia, prince of Udine, and a member of the Italian reigning house, the mission's personnel outranks that of either Great Britain or France.

Besides Prince Udine, the mission includes Enrique Arlotta, minister of transportation, and Guglielmo Marconi, the inventor. Signor Arlotta already is in Washington.

Italy's transportation needs are regarded as much greater than those of her northern allies, because she is so heavily dependent on the outside world, and particularly America, for raw materials. She must have thousands of tons of American coal to keep her factories in operation and great quantities of iron and steel for war manufactures. Lumber and selected hardwoods also are needed from America for war construction work. Chemicals are needed for the production of high explosives and great quantities of cotton must be imported from this country, not only for making smokeless powder, but for clothing for the soldiers and civilian population. Copper, brass and rubber also must be had for war purposes.

In the matter of food, Italy has perhaps more than the other allies but she is still in want of great quantities of grain. The Italians are fond of Indian corn, which is the base of the famous national dish "polenta." Any surplus corn produced in America would be gratefully received in Italy.

Italy's financial problems resemble those of the other entente allies. Already she has felt the great benefit of American aid in reduced exchange rates and in the moral encouragement of her population.

With this basis for discussion the mission expects to be here for at least a month.

RE-OPENING OF THE LOUVRE

The Louvre, under new management, will reopen this evening at 8:30 with a corps of five lady entertainers, who comprise some of the best musicians and vocalists known to the public of the coast. The business has been taken over by H. B. Ackley and Bob Marker, who are well known in Tonopah as capable managers who may be relied on to give the public the best that can be had for the money. STEAMERS CAPTURED AND TAKEN TO GERMAN PORTS IN NORTH SEA

(By Associated Press.)

STOCKHOLM, Via Sweden, May 23.—Several lighthouse stations report that German submarines have captured three Swedish steamers loaded with freight for Finland. Numerous submarines apparently are patrolling the Bothnian Gulf, working in conjunction with Zeppelins, which frequently are seen at different points off the east coast of Sweden. Traffic to Sweden by water routes recently was temporarily stopped.

It's toasted

LUCKY STRIKE
The real Burley
Cigarette

As you peacefully crunch that golded-brown, buttered-hot slice of morning toast, think what a great invention toasting is anyway. Is there any flavor like it (Cries of "No!" "No!")

We've added a new discovery to this fine old invention, to produce the Lucky Strike cigarette. We went right back to the toasting fork and the kitchen stove for the idea—after five years of experiment.

The tobacco—it's toasted

You see, we wanted to make a Burley cigarette. Because we know that smokers were awfully fond of Burley—and it certainly is "blame good tobacco"—60 million pounds poured out of those green, blue and red tins last year. That's enough for 35 billion Burley cigarettes.

Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette

But until we struck this toasting idea a Burley cigarette couldn't be made; flavor wouldn't hold. But now! That Burley flavor stays right with Lucky Strike—the real Burley cigarette. Because the tobacco—it's toasted.
